

NINJA KIDS

EARLY CHILDHOOD

MOTOR DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Ninja Kids is an engaging early childhood program filled with fun and high-energy activities. The class emphasizes isolating and developing the twelve major motor skill muscles of the human body. Through creative instruction, demonstrations, non-competitive games, and imaginative play, preschoolers enhance their coordination, strength, speed, agility, and overall muscle control.

Girls & Boys

Balance & Core Strength
Breakfalls & Rolling
Leaping & Jumping
Climbing & Crawling
Walking & Running
Pivoting, Agility & Speed
Throwing & Catching
Hand-Foot-Eye Coordination
Self Discipline & Control
Quietness & Stillness
Awareness & Decision Making
Hiking/Environmental Awareness

Ninja Kids is a program specifically created for preschoolers and is designed to be a caring, nurturing, and safe environment where the focus is on fun and the joy of movement.

- It is non-aggressive.
- It does not teach any martial art techniques.
- There is no combative language.

Ninja Kids was founded by Scott Earley in 2004 and has been a PAS Stay & Play program since 2009. Mr. Earley holds a 15th-degree black belt in the martial art Bujinkan Budo Taijutsu, earning the title of Dai-Shihan, or 'Master Teacher'.
